

Topic

- Mitra Nepal Adventurous Trekking (Web Application)

Introduction

- Mitra Nepal Adventurous Trekking (Web Application) is a client based Project for my Final Year Project. Customer can book the packages online of tour or trekking of their choice. The Web app contains different packages which include the details about the tour like duration, difficulty levels, Map showing trekking routes, pricing details with images and videos with description about the trip. It also contains 360 degree view of different location. They also provide personalized service, customer can request for customized tour facility according to their preferences and interests. Customer can request trekking gear as per their need. It also provides the facility of car renting service where customer can rent cars with reliable drivers. Admin can send notification to their customer about unique challenges or competitions with attractive offers like photo contest where customer can take part in contest by capturing the beauty of the trek and tour and uploading it. Similarly customer can post review about their trip.

UserType

- Admin
- Staff
- Customer

➔ Admin

- Login
- Upload trekking and tour Packages
- Upload Images and Videos
(360 degree view of different locations)
- Upload Map of trekking routes
- Upload Pricing

- Upload Notification about different offers
- View Review

➔ Staff

- Login
- View Booking Details
- View Car Rental request (Requested by Customer)
- Customize tour and trek package
- View notification
- View review
- Notify regular customer about different tours or trek according to their previous history.

➔ Customer

- Login
- Book package
- View Booking Details
- Request Trekking Gear
- Request Car Rental Service (Unique Feature)
- View Trekking Gear (Requested by Customer)
- Request Customization of tour or trek
- View Map
- View Images and Videos
- View pricing
- View notification
- Post Review